

Table 49: Admission to education and education evaluation rules

Indicator	Secondary school
School provides information on the provision of education (%)	100
School provides information on the manner of admitting children and pupils (%)	100
School has specified rules for evaluation of education results of children and pupils (%)	96
Number of impulses contained in complaints concerning evaluation and classification of pupils - of them justified impulses	50 8

89% of secondary schools provide assistance to students who have changed an education programme. 96% of secondary schools set clear rules for evaluating the results of education achieved by their pupils (see Table 49). More than 95% of secondary schools take into account evaluations of a pupil from a previous school.